

“THE HARD, COLD, SOBERING FACTS ABOUT GLOBAL WARMING. KOLBERT’S FIELD NOTES FROM A CATASTROPHE IS NOTHING LESS THAN A SILENT SPRING FOR OUR TIME.”

—T.C. BOYLE, AUTHOR OF DROP CITY

“Elizabeth Kolbert gives us a clear, succinct, and invaluable report from the front. Even if you have followed the story for years, you will want to read it. And if you know anyone who still does not understand the reality and the scale of global warming, you will want to give them this book.”

—JONATHAN WEINER, AUTHOR OF THE BEAK OF THE FINCH

“Kolbert mesmerizes with her poetic cadence in this riveting view of the apocalypse already upon us.”—ROBERT F. KENNEDY, JR.

“Reading Field Notes from a Catastrophe during the 2005 hurricane season is what it must have been like to read Silent Spring forty years ago. When you put down this this book, you’ll see the world through different eyes.”

—SYLVIA NASAR, AUTHOR OF A BEAUTIFUL MIND

“Kolbert’s calmly persuasive reporting stands out for its sobering clarity...this unbiased overview is a model for writing about an urgent environmental crisis.”—PUBLISHERS WEEKLY (STARRED REVIEW)

“Keenly observed and deeply memorable...the picture Kolbert draws is compelling—and very scary.”—SEED MAGAZINE
